* Enrollment Fee: Waived for BOGG recipients and Special Admit Students in grades 9–12.

**Health Fee: Pursuant to Education Code and district policy, Southwestern College has a mandatory health fee. The health fee is $14–$17 per term for each student depending on the number of units taken. The health fee and/or health fee exceptions are subject to change should the state legislature take action to change them. Any student who depends exclusively on prayer for healing in accordance with the teachings of a bona-fide religious sect, denomination or organization is exempt from paying the health fee. Students on AFDC, SSI, or General Relief may request exemption. High School students enrolled at the Sweetwater Union High School district taking designated classes at high school sites only may request exemption. Students attending under an approved apprenticeship training program may request exemption. Upon request, the health fee will be refunded to any student who withdraws from all courses prior to the 10% date of the length of the course.

Note: The fees listed below are those in effect at the time of printing. Enrollment fees are subject to change through California State Legislation and other fees through Southwestern College Governing Board actions.
