2009–2010 BOARD OF GOVERNORS FEE WAIVER (BOGFW)

The Board of Governors Fee Waiver (BOGFW) program is designed to ensure that the cost of registration fees at California community colleges is not a financial barrier to education for any California resident. Eligibility is determined based on the information given in the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or BOGFW application.

At Southwestern College the BOGFW program waives registration fees throughout an academic year—Summer, Fall, and Spring sessions. Eligibility may be obtained by one of the following:

- Method A—Recipient of public assistance. Provide current proof of receipt of benefits (dated same month of application or month prior).
- Method B—Eligibility based on income.
- Method C—Based on information provided on the FAFSA.

To apply go to www.swccd.edu and click on “Financial Aid” then click on BOGFW application. Log On or create an account. Or apply through www.cccApply.org.

Please note the processing time of the BOGFW application will take approximately three to five working days. We recommend that you apply at least five days prior to your registration date.
