

ON NOVEMBER'S BALLOT PROPOSITION Z

Southwestern College has placed a $400 million general obligation bond on the November, 2016 ballot. The bond will be used to upgrade the college's infrastructure and security, build new state-of-the-art classrooms and facilities and invest in job training and transfer opportunities for students and veterans. The bond requires 55 percent voter approval.

The Performing Arts & Cultural Complex, an expansion of the Higher Education Center in San Ysidro and a new Student Union are among the first phase of new facilities under the new bond.

PROJECTS IN DESIGN

PERFORMING ARTS & CULTURAL CENTER

The new Performing Arts & Cultural Center is currently in the design phase, and the district is currently structuring its financing. The new center will feature a 500-seat auditorium, a black box-style theater and several performing arts classrooms and studio spaces. In addition to serving Southwestern College students, the new center will also serve as a gateway to the community and will host public events, as well as cultural engagements.

Budget: $30 million

- New Security Building ($3 million)
- New Parking Structure ($10 million)
