About Southwestern College

Student Body

SWC's student body of more than 19,000 spans all age groups, nationalities, and educational backgrounds. This heterogeneous mix is one of the distinguishing features of the SWC campus, where students with diverse backgrounds benefit from one another's experiences. Ethnic students comprise 83 percent of all enrollments; the average age is 27.

Educational Costs

Full-time students, who are California residents, pay about $200 per semester for tuition and fees. There are a number of Financial Aid programs available to help pay for enrollment, books, transportation and other costs. Funds are provided by the federal and state governments in the form of loans, grants and on-campus jobs. Call the Financial Aid office, 619-482-6357, for more information.

Application Process

If you are 18 years of age or older, or a high school graduate, you can enroll at Southwestern College. Just fill out an application at the Southwestern College Admissions Center, Education Center at San Ysidro, or Higher Education Center at National City.

Degrees Granted

Course work may lead to a certificate, an associate degree, and/or transfer to a four-year college or university. SWC offers more than 285 degree and certificate options.

The District

The Southwestern Community College District is part of the California Community College System. There are 108 publicly funded two-year colleges in California.

Accreditation

Southwestern College has been accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges since 1964 and is approved by the California State Department of Education.
