DEPARTMENT CHAIR: Matt Micajah Truitt, M.F.A.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Art is the study of visual thinking, idea generation, and the creation of aesthetic objects. This department explores concepts of creative intelligence and art making techniques for a full range of two- and three-dimensional forms and investigates the history of art in both Western and non-Western cultures. Students learn the language of art, design principles, and elements of composition, as the foundation for the communication of visual ideas into such forms as painting, drawing, photography, digital imagery, ceramics, new genres, sculpture, printmaking, and graphic design. Art analysis, theory, and criticism serve as the basis for problem solving.

CAREER OPTIONS

Below is a sample of the career options for art majors. Most require an associate degree, some require a bachelor's degree, and a few require a graduate-level degree. Possible career options include artist, graphic artist, computer technician, photographer, elementary school or high school teacher, college instructor, gallery director, museum technician, sales, museum director or curator, materials supplier, film/video maker, broker, consultant, and the allied professions of architecture, telemedia, and interior design.

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS DEGREE

ART

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS DEGREE

TRANSFER PREPARATION * (MAJOR CODE: 01210)

Stresses the study of art as form and content. Designed to develop the student's perceptual and conceptual abilities in the context of art history and society. Designed to give the student an opportunity to develop his/her technical skills, aesthetic awareness, personal expression, and critical analysis.

The art courses listed fulfill lower-division requirements at most universities. Most universities require students to present a portfolio for evaluation to be admitted; therefore, students should keep a portfolio of their work from Southwestern College.

Program Student Learning Outcome Statement:

- Students will seek out resources that enable them to investigate elements for the growth of their creative and aesthetic experience.
- Students will engage in discussions of human communication, interaction and expression from all spheres, with the purpose of enriching their ability to be part of their cultural surroundings and a larger social dialogue.
- Students will interpret and synthesize concepts from diverse historical to personal contexts and references, in order to obtain a more integrated knowledge and cohesive body of work.
- Students will demonstrate a proficiency in communicating their original ideas through visual, oral or written media.
