The US Department of Education has selected your file for review due to your Unusual Enrollment History (UEH), which is defined by having attended and received a Pell Grant and/or Federal Direct Loan from multiple colleges/universities in the past four years. You must submit this form and copies of unofficial transcripts from each institution attended.

Please mark the box which applies to you:

☐ I received at least one credit from each of the institutions that I attended during the past four years.
(Award Years 2011-2012, 2012-2013, 2013-2014, and 2014-2015) as confirmed by my unofficial transcripts.

☐ I did not receive any academic credit from one or more institutions that I attended during the past four award years.
(Award Years 2011-2012, 2012-2013, 2013-2014, and 2014-2015) as confirmed by my unofficial transcripts.

You must attach a written statement of explanation for any term for which you did not earn at least one unit of academic credit and must include copies of third party documentation that supports circumstances that affected course completion or course withdrawal (i.e., medical bills/hospital records, military assignment, or court documentation of legal events). Additional information may be requested.

Your request may be denied if you have not earned at least one academic credit from one or more of the schools you attended during the review periods, if your documentation does not support your reasons for failing to earn credit or there is evidence that you enrolled in multiple programs solely to obtain Title IV funds.

If denied, you may regain eligibility in one of the following ways:

- Submit an appeal of the decision
 - Attend one term at Southwestern College without aid assistance, pass at least one course for that term and request that your appeal be reconsidered.
 - Attend another college without aid assistance, pass at least one course for that term and request that the appeal be
