High School Special Program

Dear Student and Parents,

In joining the academic community, the student enjoys the right and shares the responsibility in exercising the freedom to learn. Like other members of the academic community, each student's conduct is expected to be in accordance with the standards of the college that are designed to promote its educational purposes.

In order to make your college academic experience a positive one, we would like to address the following areas:

- Attendance/Participation - Be on time to class and/or class activities. Instructors are specific about the number of times you are entitled to be late or absent. You may be dropped by the instructor if you do not attend classes or have excessive tardies.
- Academic Cheating and Plagiarism - You must do your own work. Please cite and make references correctly. Cheating and Plagiarism may be handled with a zero grade and possibly a referral to the Standard of Student Conduct and Discipline policy.
- Health Services – We provide many different types of health-related workshops such as body piercing, drug and alcohol awareness. In addition, we provide many health services such as family planning, immunizations, etc.
- In the case of a medical emergency, by signing the High School Special Program Request Form you hereby authorize the medical staff of Southwestern College Health Services, as agents for the undersigned, to perform diagnostic procedure, to administer any counseling, medical, first aid treat, or to admit for hospital care when any or all of the foregoing is deemed advisable and is to be rendered under the general supervision of any physician licensed under the provisions of the Medical Practice Act.
- Student Behavioral Conduct – Be ready to learn and interact with your fellow students in class. Southwestern College does not give citizenship/behavior grades. We expect every student to behave like a responsible adult. Remember that the amount of information given will be intense and you must ask the instructor questions: Examples of unacceptable classroom behavior may include:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1. Cheating, plagiarism | 7. Continually leaving their seats |
| 2. Excessive tardiness | 8. Eating and drinking |
| 3. Excessive profanity | 9. Reading other than class materials |
| 4. Children in class | 10. Talking or text messaging on cell phones |
| 5. Private conversation or affection | 11. Personal electronic equipment |
| 6. Uncooperativeness | (phones, games, iPods®) |

Southwestern College is not authorized to permit access to student records to any person without the written consent of the student.

We encourage you to discuss any other college-related topics with your student and if you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Outreach Office at (619) 482-6518.
