Ask a Librarian whenever you need assistance!

Did you know that you have a librarian, a library space and book collection at HEC San Ysidro? We are located in room 5105! Librarians are at HECSY four times a week but students can have access to professional librarians 24/7 via a chat service! For all of the library's resources, go to the library's homepage:

<http://www2.swccd.edu/~library>

Electronic/digital resources available at your fingertips include: high quality pre-paid journal, magazine, and newspaper articles as well as eBooks to help you with your research papers.

Live 24/7 research assistance!

The print book collection at the HECSY Library includes textbooks, EZ Readers, reference materials, and books you can borrow for a month. If we don't have what you need, we would be happy to try to get it for you. We are here to serve you!

Dia de los Muertos

Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) is celebrated on November 1st and 2nd. Dia de los Muertos remembers the people that have passed away. In Mexico people visit the cemetery where their loved ones are buried. They decorate gravesites with marigold flowers and candles. They bring toys for dead children and bottles of tequila to adults. They sit on picnic blankets next to gravesites, tell stories and eat the favorite food of their loved ones. Mexican families build altars in their homes, write short poems called Calaveras dedicating them to the dead. They decorate their altars with papel picado, flowers, sugar skulls, religious items, food, pictures of the deceased and pan de muerto.

Pan de muerto is a traditional bread that people eat on this day and it is only baked during this time of the year.

Papel Picado is a beautiful art piece or banner made out of tissue paper in a variety of colors.

Child Development teacher Edna Marquez and Child Development

Club will carry on the tradition to decorate our Memorial. HECSY Memorial represents each of the victims and how the community bonded together afterwards of the McDonalds' tragedy.
