

STUDENT RALLIES, DEMONSTRATIONS AND MARCHES

Rallies, demonstrations or marches by student groups may be held under the following conditions: Activities officially scheduled and sponsored by the Associated Student Organization (ASO) to promote official student body activities are under the coordination and direction of the Student Activities Advisor.

All activities other than those officially scheduled and sponsored by the ASO must comply with the following requirements: prior to the event, file with the Student Activities Advisor the names, addresses and verification of student status of the student organizers, name of a faculty member who will supervise the activity, and a statement of the purpose of intent of the rally or demonstration.

