

Mark you calendar for the 2008 Athletic Hall of Fame

May 17, 2008

This year's inductees are:

Jeanne Elyea Retired School Nurse and SWC Woman of Distinction, Jeanne Elyea embraced the athletic program, its student athletes and coaches. She worked concessions for baseball, transported equipment, assisted Adaptives, and helped trainers with physicals.

Bobby Lugo A Hilltop High School football standout, Bobby Lugo was named First Team All Conference in 1992 and 1993 and All American. Of his eight SWC football records as a wide receiver, the most receptions for a game (18), season (90), and career (145) reflect his prowess on the field.

Loretta Taylor Buddhu Professor Emeritus Loretta Taylor served the School of Health, Exercise Science and Athletics for twenty-five years, advocating women's sports, building the dance program and helping to develop the health science curriculum.

Rigoberta Alvarado Hinkledire A two time Marian Catholic CIF volleyball champion, Team Captain Rigo Alvarado earned First Team All Conference honors and led SWC's Women's Volleyball Team to its first Mission Conference Championship in 1981 and Pacific Coast Championships in 1982.

Bill Virchis A graduate of SWC, Professor Emeritus Bill Virchis is an award winning thespian, producer and director of multi-theater productions. As a tenacious wrestler and competitor, he earned First Team All Conference, AAU and tournament honors in 1963 and 1964.
