

LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER

CATALOG SUPPLEMENT

PROGRAMS ADDED FEBRUARY 2004

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Basics in Pronunciation: Intermediate Practice for Clear Communication

By Linda Lane. Addison Wesley Longman, 1997.

Units 1 – 12 ESL. 29 A

Units 13 – 23 ESL.29 B

Units 24 – 40 ESL.29 C

Speaking Solutions: Interaction, Presentation, Listening, and Pronunciation Skills.

By Candace Matthews. Prentice Hall Regents, 1994

Units 1 – 4 ESL.140 A

Units 5 – 7 ESL.140 B

SOCIOLOGY

Livable Landscapes: By Chance or Choice? VC.SOC.67

Five communities explore solutions to the effects of growth and sprawl on the quality of life in New England. (57 min., CC, 2002)

THEATER ARTS

The Accused DVD.TA.27

A look at human nature and individual moral conscience and a judicial process that treats the victim like a criminal. Tells the story of a woman who is gang raped in the back of a neighborhood bar. With Kelly McGillis and Jodie Foster. Directed by Jonathan Kaplan. (110 min., CC, R, 1988)

The Prince of Tides DVD.TA.28

The story of a disillusioned Southern coach, his suicidal sister, and the psychiatrist who helps them. Based on a novel by Pat Conroy. With Barbra Streisand and Nick Nolte. Directed by Barbra Streisand. (132 min., CC, R, 1991)

THEATER ARTS, Continued

A Time to Kill DVD.TA.25

A murder trial in a small Mississippi town brings racial tensions to the flashpoint as a young idealistic attorney mounts a stirring courtroom battle for justice. Based on the novel by John Grisham. With Sandra Bullock, Samuel L. Jackson, Matthew McConaughey, and Kevin Spacey. Directed by Joel Schumacher. (150 min., CC, R, 1996)

Town without Pity DVD.TA.26

A sleepy, occupied German town is shocked by the brutal actions of four American soldiers. Based on a real-life incident and on Mangred Gregor's novel The Verdict. With Kirk Douglas, E. G. Marshall, Robert Blake, Richard Jaeckel, and Frank Sutton. Directed by Gottfried Reinhardt. (103 min., CC, 1961)