The May 11, 2011 Curriculum Summary Report (CSR) is a compilation of the new and revised curriculum proposed by faculty and submitted to the Curriculum Committee (CC), a subcommittee of the Academic Senate March 3, 2011. Faculty submit proposals for new and/or revised curriculum to the CC. The CC reviews and scrutinizes curriculum for academic rigor, transferability and/or occupational competencies, student benefit, and institutional fit, as stated in Title 5 and the State Chancellor's Curriculum Handbook. Once these and other considerations are met, the CSR is forwarded to the Superintendent/President and Governing Board for review and approval before being sent to the State Chancellor's Office. The Southwestern College CC reviewed and approved 4 new courses, 3 course modifications and 4 course inactivations.
