Discrimination in Employment

The College District complies with federal and state laws that protect individuals with disabilities from discrimination based on their disability or perceived disability status. As such, reasonable accommodations and auxiliary aids and services are available to individuals with disabilities when such modifications and services are necessary to access the institution's employment application process, during employment, and participation in its programs and services.

Disability Related Discrimination

Disability Support Services (DSS) provides support services for students with disabilities at Southwestern College as mandated by Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 508 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) 1990 are civil rights legislation implemented to prohibit discrimination against individuals with disabilities. For more information, visit: Accessibility and Section 508 Compliance \(swccd.edu\).

Operating under these mandates, DSS provides students who qualify with specialized services to support maximum participation in the College District's programs and activities.

The College District's ADA/Coordinator is Ruby Ayala who can be contacted by email at: rayala@swccd.edu.

For more information on reasonable accommodations, accessibility and how to apply for disability services please visit: Disability Support Services \(DSS\) \(swccd.edu\). You may visit Disability Support Services office in person at:
