Southwestern College's Financial Aid Department recognizes that families may experience significant changes to their income or family circumstances that are not reflected in the original Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) used to determine the student's 2018-2019 financial aid eligibility.

Please complete this form if you (and your spouse's, if married) income will be less in 2018 than in 2016, or if you (and your spouse, if married) have had some other significant changes due to circumstances out of your control. You will be required to submit supporting documentation.

A. Required Documentation

Submit the following information with this form –

- ◇ A copy of your (and your spouse's, if married) 2016 IRS Tax Transcript and W-2 form(s). You don't need to submit a 2016 IRS Tax Transcript if you have already provided one as part of the verification process for your 2018-2019 FAFSA.
 - ◇ If you have not completed the verification process, submit an 2018-2019 Independent Verification Worksheet; complete all sections of Group VI.
 - ◇ If you are submitting your request after March 1, 2019, you (and your spouse's, if married) may be required to also provide a copy of your 2018 IRS Tax Transcript and W-2 form(s).

Required Information Specific to Your (or Your Spouse's, if married) Special Circumstance

In addition, please provide the documentation specific to your or your (spouse's, if married) special circumstance(s) -

Significant Reduction of Income

- ◇ A signed statement listing the date employment ended or changed and why.
 - ◇ Copies of your (and your spouse's, if married) most recent paycheck stub(s) showing year-to-date earnings.
 - ◇ Copy of your (and your spouse's, if married) resignation, termination or layoff notification by employer.
 - ◇ Copy of current official documentation of unemployment compensation, disability insurance, severance pay, retirement pension pay out, and/or other documentation appropriate to your (and your spouse's, if married) situation.

Separation/Divorce
Which occurred after the 2018-2019 FAFSA was completed.

- ◇ A signed statement listing the date of separation/divorce, names and ages of current household members, monthly amount of child support and/or spousal support and when payments begin or are expected to begin.
 - ◇ If you (and your spouse's, if married) no longer receive child support for one or more of the children, specify the date(s) the child support ended, how many children in the household will continue to receive child support, and how much you (and your spouse's, if married) will receive each month.
 - ◇ Copy of divorce decree or legal separation documents, if available.
 - ◇ Copy of child and/or spousal support decree, if available.

One-Time Income Received in 2016.

This income will not be received in 2018. Examples include: capital gains from the sale of property or investment, one-time distribution from pension account, severance pay, or inheritance. Do not include: gambling winnings or lottery.

- ◇ Explanation of type and amount of income that was received in 2016 and is a one-time occurrence. Also indicate how this one-time income has been allocated.

Military Discharge

- ◇ Copy of DD Form 214, Member 4

Significant and/or Recurring Medical, Dental, or Nursing Home Expenses Not Covered by Insurance

- ◇ Explanation of why these expenses are not covered by insurance
- ◇ If the 2016 Federal Income Tax Return was filed with Schedule A, provide a copy of Schedule A.
- ◇ Copies of billing statement(s) from provider(s).
- ◇ Proof of payment (e.g. credit card statements, copies of canceled checks, bank account withdrawals, etc.) for expenses paid out of pocket.
- ◇ Documentation of continuing expenses not covered by insurance.
- ◇ If continuing expenses, statement from attending physician or State Disability Office.

Other Special Circumstances

Other special circumstances that may justify a Request for an Income Change Review (for example: death) that has occurred since filing the 2018-2019 FAFSA. Please note that additional documentation may be requested.

- ◇ Supporting documentation.
