

SWC Art Gallery

Iana Quesnel

Performing the Landscape

Oct. 4th–Oct. 28th

Due to the restrictions imposed by COVID, instead of a traditional exhibition, the artist will semi-inhabit the gallery space as if it were an artist studio. The exhibition will be performative and ongoing, encompassing a mix of formally displayed works, works in progress, and experimental practices. The happenings performed will be documented by the artist and displayed weekly on the SWC Gallery Instagram and Facebook pages. Students will have guided access to the space and the artist during the duration of the exhibition to witness the evolution of the works on display.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions only SWC students currently enrolled in face-to-face classes may visit in person.
