

Requalification Course Information, Out of State Cost & Materials

This course is designed to meet POST's requirements for persons qualifying or requalifying under Regulation 1008, the three-year rule. Attendees may include certificated and non-certificated California Basic Course trained officers. For these attendees, this course can be used in lieu of the Basic Course Waiver Process (BCW). The course may also be open to officers from out-of-state who wish to complete the skills testing and course mandate requirements for the BCW Process.

The content of the course includes portions of the Basic Course, which are (1) most likely to rapidly change; (2) critical manipulative skills related to officer safety or civil liability in areas which persons are most likely to experience reduced proficiency; and (3) other related critical subjects.

Law Enforcement agencies desiring to sponsor students in the Requalification Course must provide the student with a letter stating that you are either (1) currently employed, and a need exists for you to complete the course before you can perform a full range of duties, or (2) the agency will hire you upon successful completion of the course. Once the class is full, students will be placed on a waiting list.

POST Requalification Course - this POST-certified, 161-hour minimum course serves two purposes:

1. Three-Year Requalification*

This course is available to individuals who have successfully completed a POST-certified Regular or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, the Basic Course Waiver (BCW) process, or who have been awarded a POST Basic Certificate and have a three-year or longer break in service.

2. Basic Course Waiver Examination (BCWE)

After an evaluation has been approved by POST, this course may be completed to meet the examination requirements for the BCW process, which consists of written and skill components. *Six-Year exception: Individuals who successfully completed a Regular Basic Course (RBC), Specialized Investigators' Basic Course (SIBC), or the Basic Course Waiver process on or after July 1, 1999 but who never served in a position for which a Regular or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course was required by law, may requalify by completing the POST Requalification Course one time within six years from the date of basic course or waiver process completion. After six years, those individuals must complete the appropriate basic course (RBC or SIBC) to requalify, regardless of when the Requalification Course was completed.

Course Description

Presentation methodology includes lectures, practical exercises, demonstrations, and instructional activities. This course requires students to demonstrate techniques that require physical ability and agility. Concerns may be discussed with course presenters.

The Requalification Course Content includes portions of the basic course which:

- Change rapidly,
- Address critical manipulative skills related to officer safety or civil liability in areas which persons are most likely to experience reduced proficiency,
- Address related critical subjects.

Student understanding of cognitive material (e.g., law changes) will be evaluated by the administration of a comprehensive written examination. Testing will not be required for instructional blocks that are not tested in the basic course (e.g., cultural diversity, ethics, sexual harassment); however, students must participate in any associated instructional activities. Exercise tests will be required to evaluate students in all manipulative/psychomotor areas pertaining to the Requalification Course.
