

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
1	ABLE Club (Abilities Beyond Limitation through Education)	The unification of Southwestern College students; to offer the chance for students to take a more active role on issues pertaining to students with disabilities.	Allen Chu achu@swccd.edu Robert Valerio rvalerio@swccd.edu
2	ADN 2015 (Associate Degree Nurses 2015)	Promote nursing as a profession and an art and science. To raise capital for the class of 2015 activities and promote goodwill between first year ADN students and second year ADN students.	Linda McDonald mcdonald@swccd.edu
3	American Chemical Society (ACS)- SWC Chapter	To afford an opportunity for students majoring in the chemical sciences to become better acquainted, to secure the intellectual stimulation that arises from professional association, to obtain experience in preparing and presenting technical material before chemical audiences, and to foster an awareness of the responsibilities and challenges facing the modern chemist.	Joann Um jum@swccd.edu
4	AMSA (American Medical Student Association)	Promote the development of a communication network between students with common interests in health care, research, and medicine. Facilitate educational programs for the recruitment and retention of pre-health students. Encourage and expose pre-health students to community services and clinical experiences.	Raga Bakhiet rbakhiet@swccd.edu Shaunte Griffith-Jackson sgriffith@swccd.edu
5	AND 2016 (Associate Degree Nurses 2015)	Promote nursing as a profession and an art and science. To raise capital for the class of 2016 activities and promote goodwill between first year ADN students and second year ADN students.	Zaydie Feria-Bataller zferia@swccd.edu Arlin Ramira aramira@swccd.edu
6	Anthropology Club	Promote and expose the field of Anthropology to enthusiasts and other interested parties while enhancing the academic experience of its members through supplementary learning and anthropologically relevant activities.	Maria Jelaca-Tavakoli mtavakoli@swccd.edu
7	Architecture Club	Promote awareness about the field of architecture and unify students with similar goals. Incorporate activities related to the built environment. Provides mentorship opportunities.	Diana A. De La Torre ddelatorre@swccd.edu
8	Arduino Inventions & Robotics	To serve as a platform that bridges college theory with business realities, promotes discussions of microcontrollers, robotics and engineering and to provide voice that links student members with southwestern college faculty and staff.	Bruce Smith bsmith@swccd.edu
9	ASTRA Volunteer Club	Provide opportunities for personal development, career planning and preparation, leadership training, and citizenship development through community service.	Dr. Max Branscomb mbranscomb@swccd.edu

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
10	Biology Club	To provide a social atmosphere where a diverse group of students can learn and grow through the exchange of thoughts, personal goals, philosophies, and development of the biological and environmental studies.	Burak Cebecioglu bcebecioglu@swccd.edu
11	Black Student Union	Committed to understanding the history of the Black experience in the United States, our connection with Africans throughout the world and our relationships with other cultures. Empower members of the Black culture.	Dr. Rachel N. Hastings rhastings@swccd.edu
12	Business Club	To interest students in Business, Entrepreneurships, International Business and Accounting fields. Also to provide Business students with an opportunity to network among themselves and with others in the Business community.	Elisabeth Shapiro eshapiro@swccd.edu
13	Chess Club	To promote the game of chess at Southwestern college and to provide an environment of academic pursuit of the knowledge of the game of chess including but not limited to holding regular meetings, the organizations of amateur tournaments and teaching chess to students.	Gerald Selah selaharch@aol.com
14	Child Development Club	To be a source of support for students interested in the field of child development; to serve as a place to network and share ideas and job opportunities; and serve as an advocate for children issues and for students interested in the field of child development.	Jenny Sabas jsabas@swccd.edu
15	Cinematic Arts & Media Club	To utilize the skills and equipment that Southwestern College puts at the disposition of students interested in pursuing careers in cinematic arts and media.	Scott Richison ScottRichison@gmail.com Mark Sisson msisson@swccd.edu
16	Clay Club	To expand the experience and artistic opportunities for ceramics students and to increase the visibility of the College's ceramics program.	John O. Lewis jlewis@swccd.edu
17	Club Web	To promote a forum for CIS students to be informed about the developments within the CIS industry and provide a place for networking and exchanging ideas.	Kathleen Canney-Lopez klopez@swccd.edu
18	CSLA (California Student Leader Alliance)	To support and expand the developing minds of students leaders. We intend to become politically aware and help the community fight and advocate for their educational causes.	Javier Madrigal jmadrigal@swccd.edu

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
19	DH Club (Dental Hygiene)	The purpose of the club is to enhance the professional development and personal growth of each dental hygiene student. The development of a club enables the dental hygiene students to work together in educating the community and sharing our knowledge of oral health.	Karen Kubischta kkubischta@swccd.edu
20	Earth Science Club	To serve as a platform that bridges an Earth Science college education with Earth realities in the greater San Diego area.	Carole L. Ziegler cziegler@swccd.edu Bulent Bas bbas@swccd.edu
21	Environmental Technology Club	The purpose of the Environmental Technology Club is to support the students of Environmental Hazardous Materials Technology (EHMT) curriculum. This is done by facilitating access to industry-related training courses, seminars, and certification programs.	Marie Vicario mvicario@swccd.edu
22	First Generation	The purpose of this club shall be to promote high-quality, provide visibility to adults returning to SWC, promote support for adult students, identify means for identification and interaction, develop informational channels for available resources, create activities to promote cooperation and communication, and to identify issues and concerns brought forward by the adult learners concerning student success.	Sylvia Garcia-Navarrete sgarcia@swccd.edu Araceli Moreno amoreno@swccd.edu
23	Food Club	Host a pot luck once a week, with the contribution and participation of every student who joins, To unify students from various backgrounds and to donate the money gained from fundraisers to the homeless or other organizations that help feed those in need.	Robin Leon rleon@swccd.edu
24	French Club "Le Rendez-vous"	To serve as a platform that bridges theory with business realities by providing a social atmosphere, promote understanding, and provide students with an opportunities; to provide a voice that links students with SWC faculty and staff by utilizing faculty advisor talents and experience; and to support members in college oriented objectives by funding and administrating a safe and well-balanced place and providing information to students.	Eleonora Innis einnis@swccd.edu

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
25	Generation Voices	As a group, we are invested in learning and understanding the interdisciplinary relationship between speech arts and the academic areas of communication, Theatre, Performing Arts and Cultural Studies.	Dr. Rachel N. Hastings rhastings@swccd.edu
26	Global Studies Club	The purpose of the GSC shall be to raise awareness and educate our students on global issues; to encourage students to come together and create significant ideas; to further students' knowledge for understanding and valuing different	April Brennar abrennar@swccd.edu
27	GSA (Gay Straight Alliance)	To bridge the gap between the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and straight communities at Southwestern College and in the community.	Alan Wade awade@swccd.edu St Renee. Louis renee.stlouis@gmail.com
28	Hip Hop Nation	To function as a performance group specializing in hip-hop music and to promote intellectual growth by studying the history and roots of hip-hop in order to provide a better understanding of the musical genre and its significance in American history.	Todd Caschetta tcaschetta@swccd.edu
29	Hispanas Y Amigos	Hispanas Y Amigos is an organization that serves and compromise as a resource with methodology to support the student education and success along with their compromises of life, like family and work.	Margarita Andrade-Robledo mandrade@swccd.edu
30	IDEAS @ SWC (Improving Dreams, Equality, Access, & Success)	To serve as a resource to support the education and success of immigrant students of all races and ethnicities. IDEAS aims to support the disenfranchised student population by creating a community of allies and supporters for all immigrant students (especially the undocumented) at Southwestern College.	Norma A. Cazares ncazares@swccd.edu Aida Mora amora@swccd.edu
31	Improv Club	Provide an education to extend ones creativity. Improv Club will promote the individuals self-esteem along with self-confidence and help with warm up and exercises that can help members improve public speaking skills.	Mark Pentilescu mpent@cox.net mpentilescu@swccd.edu
32	Jewelry & Metal Arts Club	To promote a social atmosphere and community for all SWC Students; to create visibility and interest for the Jewelry/metals program; to support members by providing funding for special tools, materials and other educational opportunities; to expose members to business realities as they relate to the jewelry/ metals field.	Lisa Slovis Mandel lisa@lisaslovis.com

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
33	Laulima Hula Lui	To raise awareness of Polynesian culture and dances through research and performances.	Mimi Rasky mrasky@swccd.edu Vicente Taijeron vtaijeron@swccd.edu
34	MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan)	To provide awareness of socio-political, historical, and cultural elements in order to empower students to become active within their community.	Anthony Guaracha aguaracha@swccd.edu Marisol Natividad mnatividad@swccd.edu
35	MESA Club (Math Engineering Science Association)	To aid the MESA Center financially; to promote STEM major fields in SWC; to inform the members about scholarships, internships, and research opportunities; to set an in-club scholarship for members.	Raul Soto rsoto@swccd.edu
36	New Life Bible Study	Turning the hearts of students and families through partnerships and collaborations in the community and though the college campus.	Maria Abuan jpastrana@swccd.edu
37	Nu Alpha Omega	To promote understanding and better communication between criminal justice agencies; to foster, through fraternal contact, a greater understanding of institutions of higher learning and professional criminal justice agencies; to aid and encourage the expansion of higher education and to provide a unified voice for students; to fulfill these objectives.	Gary Creason gcreason@swccd.edu Gary D. Guthrie gguthrie@swccd.edu
38	Pagkakaisa	Literally translated as "all in one." To establish a cultural identity and raise cultural awareness; to be of service to the Filipino and Asian-Pacific Islander community; develop leadership through campus participation.	Jennifer Derilo jderilo@swccd.edu
39	Psi Beta	To stimulate, encourage, and recognize scholarship and interest in the field of psychology; provide leadership skills by campus and community activities.	Danielle McAneney dmcaneney@swccd.edu
40	PTK (Phi Theta Kappa)	Nurture academic excellence; provide leadership training; imbue desire to continue education; earn membership by qualifications, honor, and service.	Myriam Moody mmoody@swccd.edu
41	Puente Project	To increase contribute and support educational endeavors; increase socio-political awareness and become familiar with issues impacting communities; involvement in decision making process on campus and community; to poster personal development leadership training.	David Ramirez dramirez@swccd.edu Joyce Bayles jbayles@swccd.edu

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
42	Realm Between Realities	To Promote Freedom of expression, embrace each owns' sense of individuality, create unity among different kinds of people, and to spread positivity and creative ways of thinking.	Nicholas Mueller nmueller@swccd.edu
43	San Ysidro Child Development Club	To be a source of support for students interested in the field of child development at the San Ysidro campus; to serve as a place to network and share ideas and job opportunities; and serve as an advocate for children issues and for students interested in the field of child development.	Edna G. Marquez reynoso@swccd.edu
44	SECC (Spanish-English Conversation Club)	To provide a social atmosphere where a diverse group of students can learn and grow through the exchange of thoughts, personal goals, philosophies, and development of their proficiency in the second/foreign language they are acquiring in the formal setting of their classrooms.	Carol Stuardo cstuardo@swccd.edu
45	SHPE (Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers)	To form a national organization of professional engineers to serve as role models in the Hispanic community.	Lauren Zinola lzinola@swccd.edu
46	Sigma Psi Kappa	To provide a medium for psychology students to exchange ideas and voice their concerns in a safe and open environment. To encourage members to take initiative in helping fellow members with psychology course material by supplying student to student tutoring and conducting/arranging study groups.	Blanca Jimenez bjimenez@swccd.edu
47	SPA (Student Paralegal Association)	To interest students in careers in the legal field through networking opportunities, information about new legal court procedures and changes in the law, and collaboration with local, state, and national paralegal organizations.	Elisabeth Shapiro shapiro@swccd.edu
48	Spanglish	Enlightenment and enrichment of multiple cultures. Interact with various agencies to promote community awareness and involvement.	Evelia Talamantes eveliatalamantes@yahoo.com
49	Surgical Technology Club	To promote extracurricular activity and create a forum for continued learning in surgical technology. To prepare students of the Southwestern College Surgical Technology Program for CST examination and certification.	Vernell Dunkley vdunkley@swccd.edu
50	Sustainable Research Alliance	Provide a social atmosphere where a diverse group of students can learn and grow; promote training skills, finding new technologies, networking, research design for sustainable living; reach out to communities, low income housing, industrial buildings, recreational parks and facilities.	Gerald Selah selaharch@aol.com

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
51	SVO (Student Veterans Organization)	To support veterans in their transition from military to academia life through camaraderie.	Christopher Hayashi chayashi@swccd.edu William (Jim) Jones wjones@swccd.edu
52	SWC Arcade Club	To revitalize community involvement in interactive mediums and arcade culture and to bring interest in the video game side of the Southwestern students	Crystal Alberto calberto@swccd.edu
53	SWC Book Club	To create a literary community through reading and discussion of books.	Fredric J. Ball fball@swccd.edu Arnold Josafat ajosafat@swccd.edu
54	SWC Dance Club	To introduce different aspects and styles of dances; provide networking sources; express oneself through dance and music; raise funds for new technology.	Dana Maue dmaue@swccd.edu
55	SWC Fire Science Club	Promote student participation in all aspects of life safety and community involvement; promote life safety methods, procedures, and skills.	Kevin Roof kroof@swccd.edu Stephen Bowlin sbowlin@swccd.edu
56	SWC Jaguars Automotive Club	To build strong sense of community within SWC for current and former Automotive Program students as well as other interested students; inform club members of academic, social, and community activities related to the Automotive tech discipline.	Juan Meza jjmjr@aol.com David Preciado dpresiasi@swccd.edu
57	SWC Outrigger Canoe Club	To promote the sport of outrigger canoeing; promote the tradition and culture of outrigger canoeing including its Pacific Islands and Hawaiian roots; promote water safety and environmental awareness; serves as a platform that bridges with the outrigger canoeing, pacific Islander and water sport communities.	Myriam S Moody mmoody@swccd.edu
58	SWC Photo Club	To serve as a platform to inspire and increase the knowledge about the art of photography in all its forms.	John Pickelle jpickelle@swccd.edu
59	SWC Sailing Club	To promote water sports; sailing and water safety; environmental awareness; provide voice that links student members with SWC faculty and staff; create alliances between already established groups such as "I love a clena San Diego."	David J. Flint dflint@swccd.edu ; dflint3183@att.net

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE
SPRING 2015
CHARTERED CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

	Club or Organization Name	Purpose	Contact Person
60	The Other Writers Guild	To give student writers the opportunity to share their work; stimulate interest and recruit students to the field of creative writing; provides networking opportunities at SWC and beyond.	Heather Eudy heudy@swccd.edu Francisco Bustos fbustos@swccd.edu
61	USGBC Students SWC (US Green Building Council)	To foster scientific study and research in the field of environmentally sustainable building and operation of buildings; cultivate leadership skills among USGBC students.	Scott Steinert ssteinert@swccd.edu
62	VN 2015	To promote nursing as a profession, art, and science.	Angelia Monroy amonroy@swccd.edu
63	Volleyball Club	To promote a healthy lifestyle and promote a volleyball men's team and program; create and compete; teambuilding, develop social interactions sporting skills, team work.	Angela Rock arock@swccd.edu