Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) regarding Tenure Review

Question:	Answer:
1. Who appoints School faculty to a tenure review committee?	The School Dean appoints faculty from his/her School after consultation with the Department Chair.
2. Who appoints the At-Large member to a tenure review committee?	The Academic Senate President appoints faculty from outside the Candidate's School.
3. How do we know what to do when?	Please refer to the Tenure Review Timeline Calendar , which is on our website, or request one from Jessica, even if you think you already know the dates. Dates change from semester to semester.
4. I'm a new/replacement member on a tenure review committee. How can I get trained for Tenure Review purposes?	Training workshops will be offered at the beginning of fall semester. In addition, training can be done online for your convenience. Simply go to the Tenure Review website and click on "Training". You can view the PowerPoint for training and complete the training in this manner from your office or home. Jessica will also assist you in-person.
5. Where can I find the necessary forms?	Forms can be found on our website at http://swccd.edu/index.aspx?page=2032 . If you need assistance locating forms, feel free to contact the Tenure Review Office at ext. 6706.

7. What is new regarding evaluations and/or the tenure review process?	The Tenure Review & Faculty Evaluation Manual contains procedures, forms and rubrics to be used for tenure review purposes, evaluation of full-time and part-time faculty members. It is imperative that each faculty member review the sections of the manual regarding the type of evaluation they are doing or undergoing. We are now using new user-friendly PDF evaluation forms for faculty evaluation. Adobe Reader is required: All new forms must be opened using Adobe Reader. Anything opened in "Preview Mode" will not function properly. If Adobe Reader is not the default on your computer, please save the form and manually open with Adobe Reader. Please contact Jessica Whitsett or Jose Islas if you need assistance or have any questions. Files cannot be transferred between computers using Cloud. Once in

7. Continued... What is new regarding evaluations and/or the tenure review process?	Cloud, the format of the form will be disrupted. For fall 2015 we will be using the new faculty self-evaluation form that was piloted in fall 2014. It more closely reflects the summary evaluation. For fall 2015 we will be using the new procedure for online evaluations that was piloted in fall 2014 in an attempt to make the process more transparent.
8. What is a Tenure Review Portfolio and what sections should it contain?	The Tenure Review Portfolio is the tool which the Tenure Review Committee will use to evaluate the Candidate's documents and course materials. Only one copy of the portfolio will be prepared by each Candidate; the committee will share it and can decide how/where to house it. The portfolio will be returned to the Candidate at the final meeting of each tenure review year when the Committee meets to review the summary evaluation with the Candidate. It must contain, at a minimum, the following sections: Candidate Self-Evaluation Statement An updated Curricula Vita (see sample on website) Course Syllabus for each course Sample materials & exams for each course Any other material deemed pertinent by the Candidate. This is your brag book. It is better to have more information than not enough information. Please note: Additional criteria can be requested by the Committee with advanced written communication.
