- ii. If a candidate that is a part of a group site and does something that is prohibited on said site, the entire group will be penalized.
- iii. Joining a team shall be defined as: campaigning on behalf of another candidate(s); campaigning includes but is not limited to a contribution by you promoting another candidate(s) picture, comment/input or the use of their name(s) and shall be counted toward a joint or team page.

Paragraph 14: Upon the first offensive statement a candidate shall receive a warning, upon the second offense the candidate and thereby the team will be disqualified from telecommunication campaigning.

- i. The elections coordinator shall have the responsibility to delete any social media/networking/websites after the disqualification of a candidate.

Section 7: Voting Procedures

- Clause 1: The date of all ASO General Elections will be determined by the Election Board. General Elections will be conducted and tabulated online. There will be a two week campaigning period. During the campaigning period, General Elections information booths providing information on all candidates and all Constitution amendments will be setup at the Chula Vista Campus and each Higher Education Center. Following the second week online voting will be open for four consecutive days, during which campaigning is still allowed, and will commence at 8:00am on the first day, and conclude at 5:30pm of the fourth day.
- Clause 2: Each candidate's legal name will appear on the ballot with nicknames in parentheses if requested.
- Clause 3: Students will be required to log into Web Advisor using their student I.D. number in order to vote.

Section 8: Determination of Election Results

- Clause 1: Shall there be eligible write-in candidates, the election requirements for write-in candidates shall be included as proper in determination procedures.
- Clause 2: Election of the officers for the Executive Branch will be determined by a majority vote. Majority for the ASO General Elections is hereby defined as the greatest number of votes. In the event of a tie among the winning candidates, a run-off election will be held between those candidates on the third school day following the determination of the tie.
- Clause 3: Election of the officers for the Legislative Branch will be determined by a percentile vote. In order to be elected to the ASO Senate, a candidate must receive thirty-three percent (33%) of the votes cast for that office. (If a total of 1000 ballots were cast, but only 300 indicate preferences for the Senate, then 99 votes would be required for a candidate to take office). In the event that more than twelve (12) candidates receive the necessary number of votes, the twelve candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the winners.

Section 9: In House Elections

- Clause 1: The Special Election of the Senate shall be In House Elections. The Senate shall ensure the consistent population of the positions of the ASO Senate. ARTICLE XI

OATH OF OFFICE

I _____ do hereby swear or affirm to serve and represent the interest of the entire Associated Student Organization of Southwestern College, and to uphold the Constitution and By-Laws and the Senate House Rules of the ASO to the best of my ability.

ARTICLE XII

ASO CODE OF ETHICS

We, the Associated Student Organization (ASO) of Southwestern College (SWC), respect the dignity and rights of all people: students, academic faculty, classified staff, and administrators.

We, the voting members of the ASO, strive for honesty in representing all community college students in the Southwestern Community College District (SWCCD) through a process that includes stimulating representation through honest and open debate; and through the total documentation of all actions, positions, and decisions which the ASO may take.

Principle 1: We, the voting members of the ASO recognize that all people deserve respect regardless of their cultural background, gender, ethnicity, race, religious beliefs, political ideologies, disabilities, sexual orientation, age, or socioeconomic status.

Principle 2: We, the voting members of the ASO are careful to avoid using any personal power we may possess (whether it be physical, intellectual, academic, sexual, racial, and social) to exploit or intimidate other people. We refrain from imposing on people our personal attention if it is not welcomed.

Principle 3: We, the voting members of the ASO when it is necessary and appropriate to publicly challenge the beliefs or actions of a person, strive to do so with sensitivity. We make an attempt to preserve the dignity of every person. We accept the challenge of attempting at all times to build people up rather than tear them down. This applies to our treatment of each other and those around us, whether the setting be business or social.

Principle 4: We, the voting members of the ASO recognize that being a member of this organization involves participating in an environment in which freedom of expression is of paramount importance to ensure total student input on policy development and the free exchange of ideas. We also realize the need to demonstrate respect for our fellow ASO Officers as well as the students of this community college district when making public comments about colleagues and students.

Principle 5: We, the voting members of the ASO respect the roles of administrators, academic faculty, and staff members and fully understand that they have different viewpoints and ideas that may not always be the same as students view. We will try to resolve any problem with due respect, which includes professional courtesy avoiding surprises at all times. We must act with integrity and maturity in any negotiation with our administrative counterparts (Administrators, Board of Trustees, Academic Senate, Classified Senate or other staff or student organizations.).

Principle 6: We, the voting members of the ASO are careful to avoid dual relationships that may involve incompatible roles and conflicting responsibilities.

Principle 7: We, the voting members of the ASO recognize that our job as student representatives must not affect our roles as impartial arbitrators in any and all grievances between students to students, faculty to students, etc. We strive to attempt conflict resolution and prevent minor problems from becoming major issues.

Principle 8: We, the voting members of the ASO facilitate the representation process by providing for a comprehensive system of delivering information to community college students.

Principle 9: We, the voting members of the ASO strive to maintain proper dissemination of our minutes and agendas to all community college students.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDING AND REVISING THESE BY-LAWS

The Associated Student Organization By-Laws may be amended or revised by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the members of the Senate. All proposed amendments or revisions shall be made available to all Senators not less than ten (10) days prior to their being voted upon. These By-Laws may not be amended or revised in any way which would make them in conflict with the Associated Student Organization Constitution.

ARTICLE XIV

RATIFICATION

Section 1: These By-Laws must be effective upon approval of two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Senate members.

Section 2: All revisions must be dated and listed in order after the ratification.
